SPRING/SUMMER 2023 EDITION

Massanetta Springs provides a place for all people to experience God through renewal, discovery, and hospitality.

Massanatta's new Matthew 25 conference exceeded all expextations.

In November, Massanetta Springs held its first ever Keep Awake! retreat for high school students and their leaders. Over 200 people from 10 different presbyteries participated in this inaugural retreat, many of whom had never been to Massanetta before.

With our Centennial Celebration in 2022, we had the opportunity to reflect on the past 100 years and dream about the next century. Out of those conversations came a call for a new event focused on the themes of PC(USA)'s Matthew 25 vision: dismantling structural racism, eradicating systemic poverty, and building congregational vitality. This program was to follow a pay-what-you-can system in order to reduce financial barriers. The name, Keep Awake!, comes from Matthew 25:13, and was chosen by the planning team to emphasize the urgency of this work.

Worship, led by Rev. CeCe Armstrong of St. James Presbyterian Church in Charleston, SC, stretched over the entire weekend. On Friday night, we opened with the call to worship and prayer of confession, acknowledging the brokenness of our world and ourselves as individuals. Saturday morning was centered around scripture and sermon. On Saturday evening, we celebrated communion, singing and dancing our way to the table. Sunday morning concluded worship, with time to consider how participants might offer themselves back to the world as they were sent out.

Between parts of worship, students attended workshops which provided space to develop leadership skills like understanding church polity and structure, improvisation, and communication. One workshop used art as a way to talk about world issues and concerns.

Keep Awake! was Massanetta's first attempt at hosting an event in a "pay-what-you're-able" format. Churches were encouraged to seek support from families, congregations, and presbyteries, but ultimately to pay what felt appropriate and accessible, given their context. About 65% of the total cost of the event was covered by payments from churches, suggesting that groups took the invitation seriously. Thanks to several grants and the generosity of Massanetta Springs donors, we were able to welcome many new people from diverse backgrounds without sustaining a financial loss.

This year's Keep Awake! will take place November 17-19, 2023. Rev. John Molina-Moore, General Presbyter of National Capital Presbytery, will lead the weekend, which will focus on the congregational vitality angle of the Matthew 25 movement. Workshops will encourage youth to take on leadership roles in welcome and inclusion, critical thinking, worship elements, and sharing their faith and personal stories. Registration will open for group holds on or about June 1. The program remains pay-what-you're-able thanks to generous support from the Synod of the Mid-Atlantic, the Great Community Give of Harrisonburg and Rockingham, and individual donors.
